

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies: A Level/IB Requirements by College for 2024 Entry

The table below details A Level/International Baccalaureate requirements, as well as additional requirements, for this course by College. Colleges may still vary offers to take account of individual circumstances. This information is for 2024 entry (or deferred entry for 2025).

Subject requirements

All Colleges require: an A Level/IB Higher Level in the European language (if you want to combine with a European language). All Asian and Middle Eastern languages are taught from scratch, so there's no requirement for any previous knowledge of them.

Useful preparation: English (language or literature), History, a language (ancient or modern)

All Colleges require applicants who want to study a European language to take the relevant MML assessment. Some Colleges also require applicants for this course to take an additional written assessment if shortlisted for interview (check table for details). You don't need to register in advance for these assessments and Colleges will provide details directly to you. For information on written admission assessments for this course, please see www.cam.ac.uk/assessments.
