FOR ROUGH NOTES.

USE THIS PAPER AS YOU LISTEN TO THE LECTURE. YOU MUST HAND IT IN AT THE END.

IT WILL BE DESTROYED AND NOT USED AS PART OF THE ASSESSMENT PROCESS.
1) What, in this lecture, does the term ‘theological anthropology’ mean

2) The lecturer talks about three different ways of understanding what it might mean to say that human beings were created ‘in the image of God’ – the noetic, the relational and the Christological. Choose TWO of these and explain the strengths and the weaknesses he identifies in those approaches.
3) How might the concept that human beings were created ‘in the image of God’ have an impact on the lives of believers?
4) Some thinkers argue against the idea that there is anything distinctive about human beings over against other creatures. Suggest some arguments you could bring forward to indicate that human beings are NOT distinctive.
