

YOUR NAME:

Admissions Test – Part I

Faculty of Philosophy

Thursday 7th December 2017

The total time for the test is 1 hour.

The test has two parts. Part I, which lasts 20 minutes, contains twenty multiple-choice questions. You should mark your answers to these questions onto this question paper itself. After 20 minutes, the paper will be collected from you.

The question paper for Part II, which lasts 40 minutes, will then be given out. It will ask you to write a short essay. After 40 minutes that second question paper, together with your essay, will be collected from you.

You are not allowed to take either question paper from this room, nor any other notes or written material.

YOUR NAME:

The test contains 20 questions. All are standard multiple-choice questions. Mark just one answer to each question by circling the corresponding letter.

1. "If Anna is to complete the marathon, then she must train regularly. However, because she is unwilling to devote time to training, she will not complete the marathon."

Which one of the following most closely parallels the reasoning in the argument above?

A. If Fiona and Gary are going to divorce, they must be sure of their decision. They both insist that divorce is the only option, so counselling is pointless.

B. Harry and Iona must talk to each other, in order for them to work well together. They will not work well together, since they do not talk to each other.

C. If Bella wants to earn more money, she will need another job. She wants to earn more money, so she will have to get another job.

D. If Clara and David are to start a business, they have to cooperate. They haven't got a good history of cooperating, so they must improve this.

E. If Ed is to afford a holiday, he will need at least £1000. He has only £500, so he will need to borrow the rest.

2. "His arguments are ____ and his proposal is _____. His lack of enthusiasm shows that even he is not ____ by his own reasoning."

Which of these fillings makes the best sense of the passage?

A. flawed / dreadful / fooled

B. brilliant / cunning / persuaded

C. brilliant / promising / persuaded

D. complicated / cunning / confused

E. complicated / dreadful / confused

YOUR NAME:

3. "To avoid these bottles being ____, they must be packed ____. After all, they are very ____."

Which of these fillings makes the best sense of the passage?

- A. late / rapidly / damaged
- B. damaged / carefully / fragile
- C. overheated / rapidly / early
- D. overheated / carefully / fragile
- E. damaged / rapidly / hot

4. "Even if a new phone would make Sam happy, it does not follow that she should buy one. What must also be taken into account is that phones can be very expensive and there will be a new model coming out next year."

Which of the following most accurately expresses the main point of this argument?

- A. Sam should probably save her money and spend it on something other than a new phone.
- B. Sam should either buy a phone now or wait a year.
- C. There is no perfect time to buy a phone as new models are always coming out.
- D. The fact that Sam would enjoy having a new phone does not by itself justify Sam in buying one.
- E. Sam should keep shopping until she finds an inexpensive phone.

YOUR NAME:

5. "Children who are above average height also tend to have diets that are more healthy than average. So if David wishes to increase his child's height, then he should feed his child healthy food."

Which of the following is probably being assumed by this argument?

- A. There is no third causal factor that affects both children's height and also the healthiness of their diet.
- B. David's child is not already tall.
- C. It is good for children to be tall and healthy.
- D. David's child is an average child.
- E. All families are fairly similar.

6. "If the team practises every day, then the team's star will be exhausted. However the team is not going to practice every day; the team will have weekends off. So the star will not be exhausted."

Which of the following is the best statement of the flaw in the argument?

- A. It overlooks the possibility that the star would not be exhausted even if the team practises every day.
- B. It overlooks the possibility that in the future the manager may have a change of mind and the team will not have weekends off.
- C. It overlooks the possibility that the team might win whether or not the star is exhausted.
- D. It does not explain why it is so important for the star not to be exhausted.
- E. It overlooks the possibility that the star might be exhausted even if the team does not practise every day.

YOUR NAME:

7. "None of Snoopy's books are interesting. No inaccessible book is simple. No complicated book is charming. Any uninteresting book is inaccessible."

If all of this is true, what can we legitimately conclude?

- A. All inaccessible books are uninteresting.
- B. All Snoopy's books are simple.
- C. All Snoopy's books are not charming.
- D. All Snoopy's books are accessible.
- E. None of the above.

8. An urn contains 1 yellow ball, 2 blue balls, 2 red balls and 2 green balls.

What is the minimum number of balls that you must take from the urn, in order to guarantee that you have two of the same colour?

- A. 2.
- B. 3.
- C. 4.
- D. 5.
- E. 6.

9. "Dancing bears have miserable lives. Other forms of animal entertainment are available, such as zoos. Insofar as people are concerned about animal welfare, they should not watch bears dance, and instead visit the zoo."

Which of the following is an underlying assumption of this argument?

- A. There are no bears at the zoo.
- B. Zoo animals are not as miserable as dancing bears.
- C. Animals have a right to be treated humanely.
- D. Zoos are not significantly more expensive than dancing bear shows.
- E. Animal welfare activists never watch bears dance.

YOUR NAME:

10. Which of the following statements is the only true one?

- A. All five statements on the list are false.
- B. C is the only true statement on this list.
- C. All five statements on this list are true.
- D. B is true.
- E. A and C are false.

11. "Al is too young to cycle. You have to be older to drive than to cycle. So Al is too young to drive."

Which of the following is most similar to the reasoning used in the above argument?

- A. Al does not have enough money to buy a horse. A motorcycle is also expensive, so he won't buy that either.
- B. Al cannot sleep if he drinks coffee after dinner. Tea contains less caffeine than coffee, but he still won't drink it.
- C. Morocco is hotter than France, and Al wants to live somewhere only if it is colder than France. So Al does not want to live in Morocco.
- D. Al does not like cycling. Rowing is like cycling, so he won't like rowing.
- E. It is too far for Al to drive to the supermarket. The market is closer than the supermarket, so he'll go there instead.

YOUR NAME:

12. "A band wants to sell out their concert. Concerts sell out only if they are well advertised. The band plans on spending the largest amount ever on the concert's advertising campaign. So the concert will sell out."

Which of the following is the best statement of the flaw in the argument?

- A. It assumes that future concerts' ticket sales can be predicted from past sales.
- B. It does not consider which types of advertising are the most effective.
- C. It ignores the possibility that the costs of advertising exceed the revenue from ticket sales.
- D. It assumes that advertising causes ticket sales when all we know is that advertising and ticket sales are correlated.
- E. It confuses a condition necessary for a certain outcome to happen for a condition that, alone, is sufficient to assure the result.

13. "If the government does not spend more money on hospitals, then public health will continue to get worse and people will work fewer hours. This would harm the economy and could mean the government is voted out of office."

Which of the following is incompatible with argument above?

- A. People working fewer hours would mean the end of the government.
- B. Hospital spending will not increase but the government won't risk being voted out of office.
- C. Public health has reached dangerously low levels.
- D. People do not enjoy working.
- E. The government will not spend more on hospitals, but it won't risk being voted out of office.

YOUR NAME:

14. "All bad acrobats are clumsy. Since monkeys are agile, they are not bad at acrobatics."

Which of these is most similar to the above argument?

- A. All foxes are cunning. Since Gina's pet is cunning, Gina's pet must be a fox.
- B. To be a good photographer, you have to be artistic. So it is not surprising that Hattie is both a good photographer and also artistic.
- C. No one wins at chess, unless he or she is patient. The vicar is impatient. So when the vicar plays chess, he loses.
- D. A sufficient condition for being an effective politician is that you not be shy. But Jim is shy. So if Jim is a politician, then he is an ineffective one.
- E. Any animal who is fast will survive in the wild. But snails are slow. So if a snail survives in the wild, then it must have a very strong shell.

15. Rob amuses Peter and Sara. Peter amuses himself, Rob and Sara. Tara doesn't amuse anyone. Sara amuses herself, Peter and Tara.

Which of the following sentences is false?

- A. There is someone who amuses Peter but does not amuse Sara.
- B. Everyone who amuses themselves amuses Peter.
- C. Everyone who is amused by Peter also amuses Sara.
- D. There is someone who is amused but doesn't amuse anyone.
- E. Anyone who amuses Peter and someone else is also amused by Peter.

YOUR NAME:

16. Julia is giving people a lift in her minivan. She keeps letting people into the minivan, until there are either (i) three passengers, who all know each other, or (ii) two passengers, who do not know each other.

What is the maximum number of people that she will let into the minivan?

- A. 2.
- B. 3.
- C. 4.
- D. 5.
- E. 6.

17. You are inside a room facing two doors: door A and door B. Jones says that door A will lead to the way out, but door B will not. Smith says that one door will lead to the way out, but the other door will not. One of Jones and Smith always tells the truth, and the other always lies (but you don't know which is which.)

Which doors, if any, lead to the way out?

- A. Both doors.
- B. Door A only.
- C. Door B only.
- D. Neither door.
- E. Not enough information.

YOUR NAME:

18. Bag A contains 2 yellow balls and 18 pink balls. Bag B contains 2 pink balls and 18 yellow balls. You randomly pick a bag at and draw balls from it.

Which of the following statements is true?

- A. If the first two balls are yellow, then the third is probably pink.
- B. If the first ball is pink, then the second ball is probably pink.
- C. If the first ball is pink, then the second ball is probably yellow.
- D. If the first two balls are different colours, the third ball is probably pink.
- E. None of the above is true.

19. A bowl contains some red, yellow and green fruit. If you take three pieces of fruit from the bowl, at least one is red. If you take three pieces of fruit from the bowl, at least one is yellow.

How many green pieces of fruit are there in the bowl?

- A. 0.
- B. 1.
- C. 2.
- D. 3.
- E. Not enough information.

20. "All of Belinda's pets are furry. Nothing that is cute is also cruel. Everything which is not cute cannot be furry."

If all of these statements are true, what can we conclude from them?

- A. None of Belinda's pets is cute.
- B. Everything cruel is furry.
- C. Everything that is cute is also furry.
- D. Nothing cruel is one of Belinda's pets.
- E. None of the above.

YOUR NAME:

Admissions Test – Part II

Faculty of Philosophy

Thursday 7th December 2017

Please write one essay on the topic of one of the questions below. You have 40 minutes for this part of the test.

QUESTION 1

Smith and Jones both know that Bloggs is in the desert and only has a single bottle of water, which Bloggs needs to drink to survive. In the morning, Smith puts lethal poison in the bottle. Jones is unaware that Smith has done this. Later that day, Jones pours the poisoned water away. Bloggs dies of thirst. Who caused Bloggs's death?

QUESTION 2

"A virtuous person would never rely on another person's testimony about the morally right action to perform." Discuss.