INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Please read these instructions carefully, but do not open the question paper until you are told that you may do so. This paper is Section 2 of 2.

There are eight questions in this paper, of which you should answer one.

You should write your answer in the space provided in this question paper. Please complete this section in black pen.

You can use the blank inside front cover for rough working or notes, but no extra paper is allowed. Only answers in the space indicated in the paper will be marked.

Dictionaries may NOT be used.

Please wait to be told you may begin before turning this page.

This question paper consists of 11 printed pages and 1 blank page.

This page is intentionally left blank for your rough working or notes.

Choose one of the questions below and write your answer in the space provided in this booklet.

Assessment of your answer will take into account the overall coherence and persuasiveness of your argument, your ability to use relevant evidence to support it, and the clarity and quality of your English.

1. What, if any, is the best form of government?
2. Does it matter if politicians are hypocrites?
3. Are societies becoming more unequal, and is that a bad thing?
4. What are the arguments for and against open borders?
5. Do referendums make for more democratic decision-making?
6. Why do celebrations typically involve feasts?
7. What makes people related to one another?
8. Do we learn anything by comparing the collapse of the old Soviet system with the more recent success of China?
